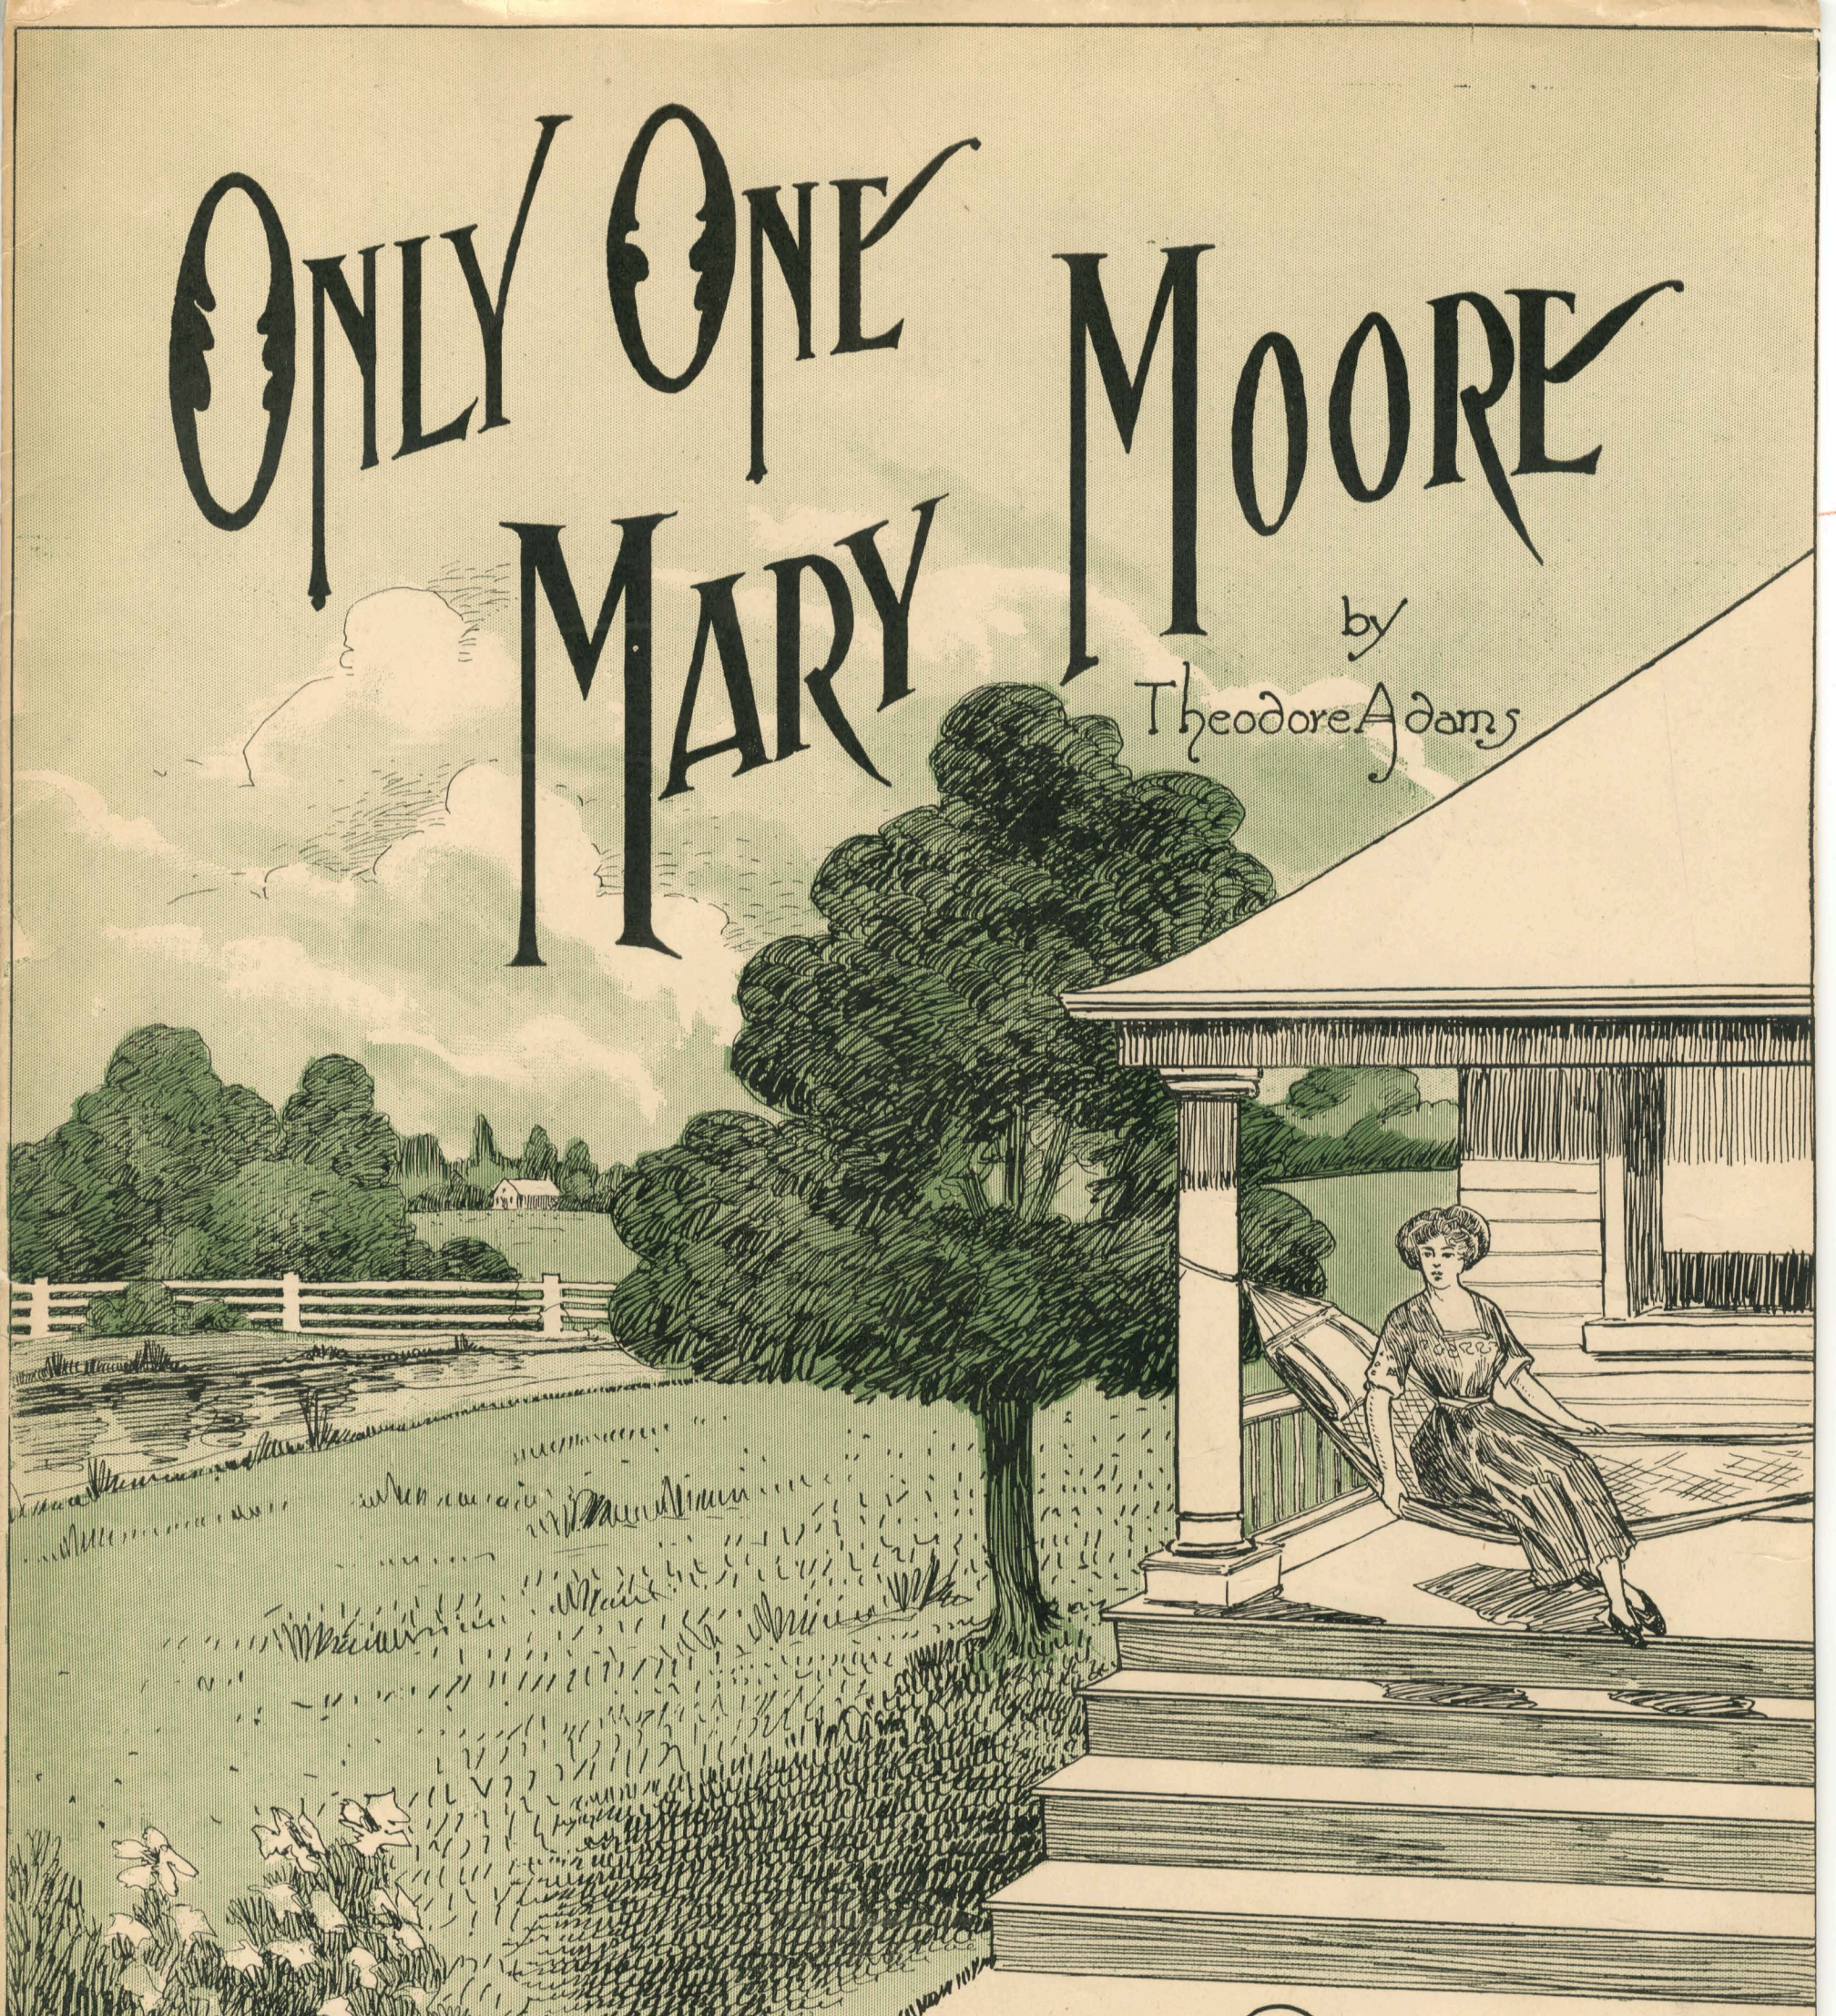
Only One Mary Moore

by

Theodore Adams



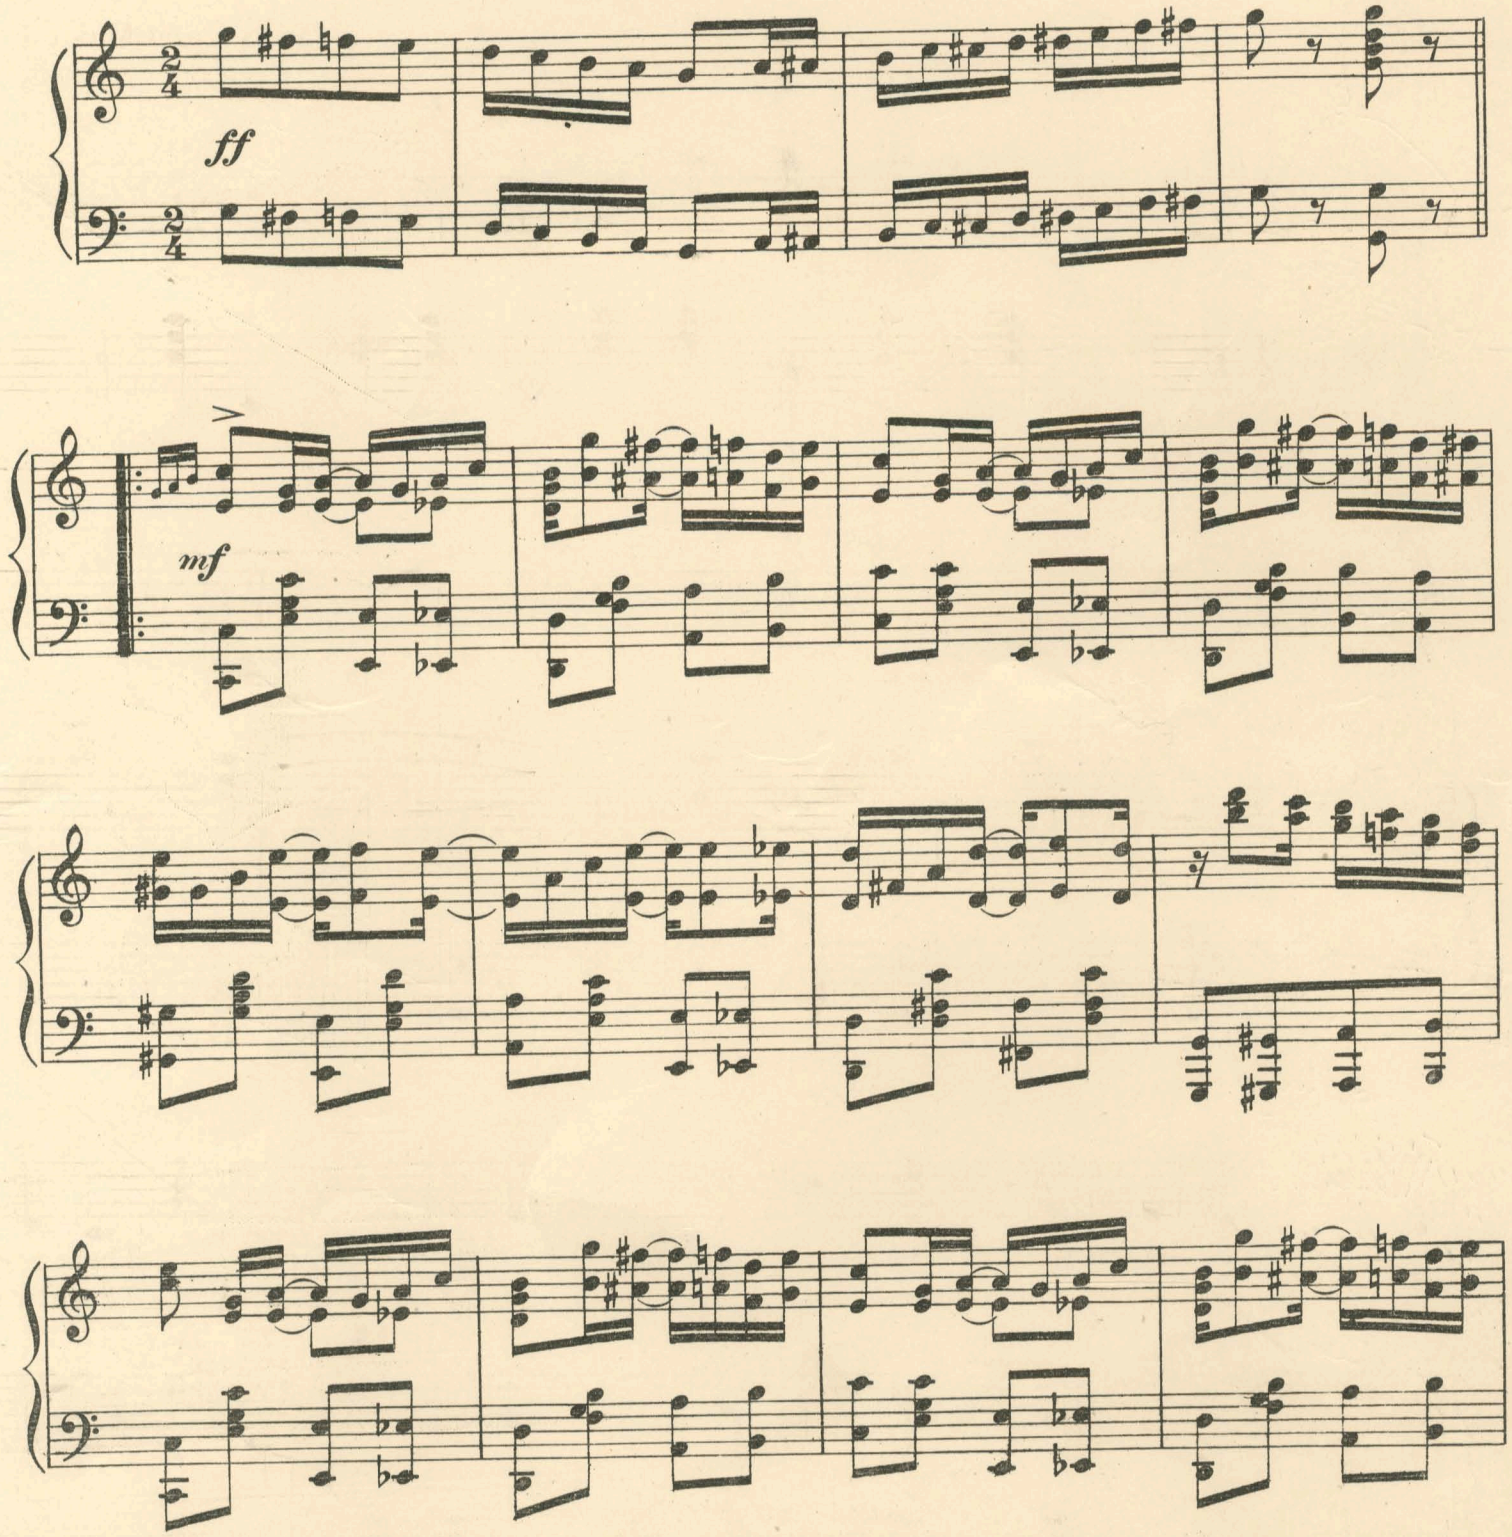
5

STARK MUSIC COMPANY
Publishers
St. Louis, Mo.

TRY THIS ON YOUR PIANO.

Clover Blossom Rag.

BUD MANCHESTER.



Copyright 1912 by E. J. Stark.

FOR SALE WHEREVER MUSIC IS SOLD.

There's Only One Mary Moore.

Words and Music by THEO. ADAMS

Copyright 1912 by E. J. Stark.

red ros - es and vines by the door There's a red ros - es and vines by the score Ma - ny porch hammock that's swinging There's a voice mer - ri - ly sing - ing Tis the porch hammocks are swinging Ma - ny sweet voic - es are sing - ing But there's voice of sweet Ma - - ry Moore

on - ly one Ma - - ry Moore

There's only etc. 3.

CHORUS.

Ma - - ry Moore I'm lone - ly for you to - night There is just some-thing a - bout you There is no liv-ing with-out you My own lit-tle Fai - ry Sprite.

There's only etc. 3.

A CITY FAR AWAY.

By Luther Adams

You Can not imagine a sweeter or more pathetic little song than this. The utter desolation that comes over a little tot when she realizes that her mother has gone from her forever, is vividly told and the story is enhanced by one of the sweetest melodies e r written. Ask to hear it.

To Little Marie Adams.

A CITY FAR AWAY.

Words by CADDIE Mc DONALD.

Music by LUTHER ADAMS.

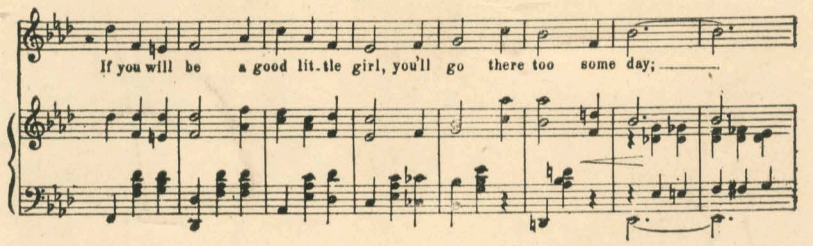
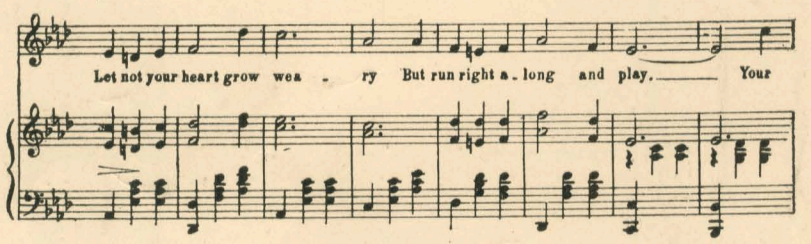
Valse Lento.

CHORUS.





Copyright 1911 by Stark Music Pig. & Pub. Co